Dear Supporter,

Thank you for the interest you have shown in sponsoring a teacher.

We have created a scheme whereby any money you donate on a regular basis will be used directly for funding teacher's wages at Kira Farm Training Centre.

Kira Farm is a unique training project and is set in 23 acres of fertile land 12 miles north of Kampala. It's designed for parentless and needy young people that have missed the opportunity to continue with any primary or secondary education. Each student will join the training programme for a 12 month syllabus and will be educated in many relevant vocational and farming skills, enabling them to return to their communities with livestock, seeds and tools.

We believe this innovative project will indeed be life changing for many orphaned young Ugandans. We would love for you to travel with us on this journey.

If you require further information on this or any other aspects of Amigos work then please contact us on the information above.

Yours sincerely,
